Medical Disclaimer

The content presented on this website by Refresh Your Beauty® is intended for educational and informational purposes only.

It should not be interpreted as medical advice or a substitute for consultation with a qualified healthcare professional.

Individual Results May Vary

Every patient is unique. Treatment outcomes depend on many factors including anatomy, medical history, lifestyle, and adherence to treatment recommendations.

For this reason, individual results may vary.

Consultation Required

Before undergoing any aesthetic or medical treatment, patients must undergo a professional consultation with a licensed medical provider.

This consultation allows us to evaluate your goals, medical history, and determine the most appropriate treatment plan.

No Provider–Patient Relationship

Use of this website does not establish a provider–patient relationship between you and Refresh Your Beauty® or its providers.

A provider–patient relationship is only established after an in-person or telemedicine consultation and the completion of appropriate medical documentation.

Emergency Situations

This website should never be used for medical emergencies.

If you are experiencing a medical emergency, please call 911 or seek immediate medical care.

Professional Care Philosophy

At Refresh Your Beauty®, we believe aesthetic medicine should be practiced with integrity, safety, and respect for natural beauty. All treatments are performed under medical supervision using evidence-based protocols designed to prioritize patient wellbeing.
